Another Meeting of the Convention-No

tion of the conventi delegates was held Tuesday evening at Gallilean Fisherman's Hall, Captain O. S. B. Wall in the chair, with M. P. Hamlin and C.C. Brisco secretaries. Messes, Robert Butler, from the Josephus Com-mandery; Robert Jackson, Packer, and Richard Graudie, Golden Star Lodge, No. 26; W. H. Lee, J. mandery; Robert Jockson, Packer, and Richard Grantile, Golden Star Lodge, No. 26; W. H. Lee, J. D. Lamson, and J. E. Garner. Nebo Lodge, and John King and Aimsted Blackburn presented their credentials as delegates. On motion of W. Calvin Chase Messrs. A. R. Brown and George Helmes were invited to address the convention. The chair amounced two additional names to the committee on finance, Messrs. Stiney McFarriand and W. P. Dupee. After the adjournment of the convention the committee on speakers met and had a lively time in selecting the orator of the evening. Mr. John Shippen nominated Professor Richard T. Greener to preside on the day of the celebration, and Hon. John H. Smyth, ex-Minister to Liberia, as the orator of the occasion. A lively discussion arose at this juncture. Colonel Porry H. Carson was the special chumpion of Prederick Douglass, while W. C. Chase and John Shippen supported Professor Greener and Iton. John H. Smyth. Mr. Carson got very much excited and attempted to leave the ball. Finelly, as a compromise, the committee centred upon Capatal Wall to preside, and Mr. Chase nominated Hon. John H. Smyth for orator and Colonel Carson nominated Mr. Ponglass. The vote shood: Douglass and Smyth 3. Mr. Carson raised the point that the chairman could not vote, which created quite an animated discussion. Several members of the committee claimed that the chairman voted and the point was raised that he had no right to vote, the committee adjourned in the wildest confusion. The vote stood as follows: Messrs. O. S. Wall, John Shippen, and W. C. Chase for Hon. John H. Smyth, and Messrs, P. H. Carson, William F. Hamlin, and William A. Robinson for Mr. Douglass.

Finishing the Monitors. A member of the House Committee on Naval Affairs in conversation Tuesday night said that the question as to the advisability of completing the five monitors-four of which were recently in-spected by members of the committee-was in-formally discussed yesterday, but finally laid over for action on Thursday next. "There is no doubt," continued the member, "that at our next meeting we shall pass a resolution recommending that the Committee on Appropriations embody in the naval appropriation bill a sum sufficient to finish these vessels." The member said that such a resolution would have been adopted at Tuesday's meeting if a vote had been called for.

"The Sungglers." The benefit to be given Mes-rs. Vance and Sousa, at Lincoln Hall, Saturday night, deserves particular consideration at the hands of the Washington public. Mr. Souss is a native of this city—he was born on Capitol Hill a little more than twentyseven years ago—and has steadily climbed the ladder of success under the eyes of our people. There is no doubt of his present status as a composer—it is in advance of that of any other American. There can be no doubt of his future. It is fitting that the first tribute to his genius should come from his birth-place. The recognition of his abilities throughout the entire cauntry is a question of a very short time, and Washington ought to lead in it.

Mile. Bhea.
It might be well to premie this brief description sent us with the statement that Mile. Rhea's beauty is queenly, Her head is exquisitely shaped, and crowned with a heavy suit of dark, almost black, hair; her face is delicately but clearly cut: black, hair; her face is deficitely but clearly cut: her dark eyes brilliant as her diamonds, and her mouth might have served as an original modes for the bow of Cupid. Her countenance moves with every motion, and is refused, intelligent, and expressive to a high degree. Her form is lithe, graceful, and charmingly monided, all of which personal attributes combine to call forth the nomage received by her.—Exchange.

signed to George W. Harrey exclusively, provided he pay to the executor one half of the profits arising from the patents. John T. Given is appointed sole executor, and is also requested to act as guardian of the four infant children of the deceased. The money received from the patents is to be used for the maintenance of the infant heirs, and the baiance invested for their henefit, share and share alike. All the tools and instruments of his trade he bequeaths to his son, Alexander Rufus Scal; any other property is to be divided equally among the children. In consideration of the fact that his wife, Annie Ellen Scal, has property in his own right, and for other reasons satisfactory to himself, he leaves her only her legal rights in the estate and makes no bequest of any kind to her.

The scaled will of Father Boyle, filed Monday, was opened yesterday. The dead priest leaves his entire library to Archbishop Gibben, of Baltimore. Two hundred dollars is left to William Leach in trust for the support and maintenance of James Ryou, son of Mary Ryon, deceased, and nephew of William Leach. To Margaret Byrne the sum of Sio is bequeathed. To Father Boland, assistant pastor of St. Matthew's Church, the sum of S25 for a specific purpose, the nature of which has been verbally explained to him. The executor is directed to pay Jacob Detrich, ward of the deceased, the sum of S54, that being the amount of balance in his hands as his guardian. All of the above bequests and legacies are to be raid out of the proceeds of the life assurance policies. All the rest, residue, and remainder of the estate are devised and bequeathed, share and share allke, to his sketch, Anna M. Boyle and Agnes M. Boyle. Thomas J. Myers is appointed sole executor. Gettysburg Veterans.

The success of the meeting on Tuesday evening of veterans engaged in the first day's battle of Gettysburg to consult with Colonel Bachelder, the Government historian of that battle, and the desire to render every assistance in tle, and the desire to render every assistance in determining the facts of the history, has caused another invitation to be issued, this time to Union and confederate soldiers engaged at and near the "Peach Orchard," "Wheatfield," "Devil's Den," and "Round Top," to meet at the office of the Commissioner of Pensions at seven o'clock this evening to confer with Colonel Bacnolder. This call is made by General R. B. Ayres, U. S. A. (commanding the division of regulars at Gettysburg); Hon, V. H. Mainbing, M. C. diste colonel Third Arkansas Regiment), Hon, W. S. Shallenberger, M. C. (late adjutant One hundred and fortleth Pennsylvania Volunteers), Hon. William H. Forney, M. C. (late colonel Tenth Alabama Regiment), General Ellis Spear (late colonel Twentieth Maine Volunteers), Hon. D. W. Aixen, M. C. (late colonel Seventh South Carolina Regiment), Captain Charles F. Sawyer, (late adjutant Fourth Maine Volunteers), and others. These rounions will be continued during the progress of the history until all the Important locations of the field have been examined.

The Willsdale Rowing Club. The attention of boating men here was some time ago invited to the project of sending the celebrated Hillsdale Rowing Club, of Hillsdale, Mich., across the water the coming summer to row in the English amateur regains. Mr. John W. Corson, of the Analostous, who is a member of the Nathonal Amateur Rowing Association, bec. W. Corson, of the Analostous, who is a member of the National Amateur Rowing Association, has been active in securing aid for the Hillsdales, but Mr. S. C. Rowlson, secretary of the club, has written Mr. L. E. Gridley, of the Register's Office, Treasury Department, who is from Michigan, trging that the Michiganders should come out strongly to swell the fund. In view of the fact that the treasurer of The National Experiences is also a Michigan man, and has a natural pride in the celebrated crew, it may be amnounced that subscriptions may be left either at the business office of this patier or with Mr. Gridley. As there is a large number of persons in the city who are inferested in beating, and in sporting matters generally, the amount raised here should be of considerable proportions.

The rush of visitors at the White House, rester day was immense, and the throng was increased by a large number of the New England visitors. The President received them all, however, Among the caliers were Senators Saunders, Rollins, Van Wyck, Sawyer, and Logan, Representatives Valentine, O'Neill, Harmer, Caswell, Houk, Aldrich, Chace, Pound, Camp, Ringhan, Derendorf, Pierce, and Skiuner, and General Schenck.

WEST WASHINGTON.

Mr. John M. Waters received a telegram yesterday announcing the death of his brother, Waters. T. Waters, in New York. His romains will be brought on to Oak Hill Cemetery for interment. Colonel John A. Joyce has returned from New York, where his business in Wall street calls him occasionally. LOCAL MENTION.

Not Found Yesterday Nor the Day Refore—Will It He Found To-Day?

We allude, of course, to the $500 that was placed in one can, and only one, both yesterday and Tuesday. This morning bright and early it will again be placed on our shelves in a can of either ten or coffees, and the person who selects that can will be rise foundred dollars better off one moment after it is done. Other cans will contain various sums—2 or 2 $250 case; a few either $200, $175, $150, $125, $100, $70, $50, or $50 cach. The balance will contain a sum of money each; none over $10 and not one less than ten cents. So, figure it as you please, no one can will cost you over 90 cents, and for that $60 cents you will get a can of as good tea as money will buy, weighing, with contents, $14 pounds, or a can of pure Mocha and Java, the best coffee in America, weighing, with contents, $24 pounds. Think for a moment—the best coffee in America, and we mean what we say, for a fraction over 27 cents per pound? If you buy 62 cans of cither or both for $6 you will get it a great deal cheaper. Figure it. If you buy 12 cans for $10 it is think the worst possible view of it—tie, that there will be but 10 cents in cach and every of the 65 cans you buy, $6 cans for $50, taking the worst possible view of it—tie, that there will be but 10 cents in cach and every of the 65 cans you buy, which cannot happen on any shelf or section in our store, and the average price per can is about 67 cents. Now, figure again 14, pounds of as good tea, less weight of can, as money will buy for 67 cents, or $6, pounds of the best dess weight of can) you ever draw for 67 cents—about say 20 cents per pound, Reader, have you ever figured this matter before? If not, and our figures are correct, do you not think we sell not only the best but the curar serve tea and coffee in each can, and have left the city, which will be hard we have money—plenty of it—to back them up. We do it to conving pounds of the best chess weight of can) you come for the tea or or $600 in the

DUBLIC VOICE. — 917 R street. GENTLEMEN:

I very gladly recommend Brown's Iron Bitters to any one suffering from general debility. I have used three bottles so far, but before I had used half the first one I began to realize great benefit from its use,

Famous

Six-Seat

Rockaway,

MADE BY J. W. GOSLING,

(Factory and Repository, corner Sixth and Sycamore streets, Cincinnati,)

s a model of quiet comfort and elegance. It is roomy, luxurious, and being constructed upon the best principles to insure solidity and convenience, it is the acknowledged leading family carriage of the age. The Six-Par senger Rockaway is a prime favorite in the miburbs. Is appearance denotes it a "private establishment" in contradistinction to the more flashy public equipages of the road. In manufacture, materials employed, finish, and ensemble, it is equal to the standard upon Samilpox Notes. which the maker rests his reputation. J. W. Fannie Taylor, a colored girl, living at 900 First Goeling's prices are the lowest consistent with highest perfection in construction.

> REFERS TO General W. B. Hazen, Washington, D. C. Judge Stanley Matthews, Washington, D. C. Hon, Washington McLean, Cincinnati.
